

Give Me Back My Mike

I've got a story it's stuck in my throat
Lost in the echoes of every note
Give me the stage let me scream loud
Wanna see fireworks in this crowd

You took my voice and you stole my sound
Silence that wraps me it's pinning me down
Out in the shadows you're holding tight
I'm just a whisper without a fight

Give me back my mike I need to sing
Let my voice be heard let the freedom ring
A prisoner of silence won't be tonight
Give me back my mike I'll make it right

In these chains I've found my spark
Rising from the silence into the dark
With every heartbeat I'll reclaim
The power the magic the voice and the name

You can't hold me back when I break free
I'll paint the lyrics of my destiny
Take my hand if you want to fly
We're breaking open the midnight sky

Give me back my mike I need to sing
Let my voice be heard let the freedom ring
A prisoner of silence won't be tonight
Give me back my mike I'll make it right
